

Coach's Code of Ethics

All coaches of the Titusville Soccer Club will comply with these standards. A failure to abide by these standards may result in disciplinary action.

1. Soccer belongs to the players. A coach must put the welfare of the game and the players above their own personal gain.
2. A coach will never engage in unsportsmanlike conduct and will not tolerate it in his or her players.
3. Coaches are not doctors but must direct all injured players to the appropriate emergency and medical providers.
4. A coach will not play an injured player when there is a risk that the injury could become permanent.
5. A coach will not authorize the use of drugs, medicines or stimulants by his or her team athletes.
6. A coach will not circumvent player eligibility rules.
7. A coach will know all the laws of the game and see to it that the coach's players live up to both the letter and intent of them.
8. A coach will treat every player with respect and in a manner appropriate for the age of the player.
9. The coach will follow and abide by all the rules and regulations of the U.S.S.F., FYSA, Brevard Youth Soccer League, and Titusville Soccer Club.
10. The coach will treat officials with respect and demand the same of their players, parents, and fans.
11. The coach will avoid arguing with the opposing coach, the opposing players and any fans.
